

Inteleos Board of Directors Recruitment

Inteleos™, a 501(c)(6) non-profit organization whose mission is to improve public safety through the certification of healthcare professionals, is recruiting up to three Board of Director positions to assist in further globalizing the organization. These volunteer Board of Director positions should have expertise in any one of the following areas: global health, public policy, international business or medical informatics.

Inteleos is headquartered just outside of Washington, DC, in Rockville, Maryland, USA, and has approximately 108,000 active Certificants, most of whom are certified in the use of medical ultrasound. Although the majority of Certificants are located in North America, there are Certificants in 70 different countries. Inteleos is the world leader in medical imaging certification and has a progressive strategic plan to improve public safety through individual healthcare certifications and to develop a global certification community.

If interested, please submit your resume or curriculum vitae to Kelly Herman, Executive Assistant and Staff Liaison to the Inteleos Nominating Committee, at Kelly.Herman@Inteleos.org. If you have questions, please call 240-386-1553.
